Commercial Off-the-Shelf (COTS) for Military Applications

Ready to Go

Designed to meet and exceed the most stringent military specifications, the Archer 2™ is an ideal tool for use in the military. In addition, the Archer 2 meets the COTS (commercial off-the-shelf) requirements for rugged mobile computers, without needing modifications or cumbersome add-on equipment. For those military applications that do require product modification, Juniper Systems can easily provide customization and expansion options to accommodate your needs.
